

About Kindermusik:

Kindermusik is one of the leading programs of music and movement for children, ages newborn to 7 years old. It is internationally known with over 5,000 licensed educators. Each class activity is based on proven research in child development with emphasis on nurturing skills in the whole child: cognitive, physical, social, emotional, and language.

In a Kindermusik class, educators lead a group of parents and their children through joyful activities, using music and movement. Parents learn more about their child's unique developmental process, and the shared learning experience creates a unique bond as the child associates learning with fun, musical play. This learning process continues at home, guided by specially designed books, instruments, CDs, and games. Kindermusik ideally prepares children for private lessons, vocal and instrumental and instills a life-long love and appreciation for music.

About the Instructor:

Laura Hoffman is a music educator and professional harpist, but most importantly a mommy. She received her Kindermusik training in 1995 and her Masters in Music, Performance at the University of Redlands in 1998. Laura always knew that when she had children of her own she would want to make sure to give them the advantage of early childhood music enrichment. Now with two little ones, Kindermusik is her first choice. As an educator she provides the direction and the activities that frame the class while the process of learning and exploration is fundamentally child led. Laura is delighted to offer Kindermusik to you and your little ones. It is being tested and tried every day in the Hoffman home with magnificent results.

About the Location:

The Frederick Seventh-day Adventist Church has hosted Kindermusik since the fall of 2005. Its membership embraces the nurturing of children by providing many programs for children and families including parochial education. Kindermusik classes are held in one of the large classrooms connected with the church. www.fredericksdachurch.org

About your child:

Your child will be best prepared for private music lessons by participating in Kindermusik. Children completing Kindermusik through the age of 7 have typically achieved a strong sense of meter and movement. They can compose simple melodies and perform them in a playful setting. Though Kindermusik is not performance oriented, it is the best way to endow children with confidence and skills for future performance based activities such as private instrument lessons and/or vocal development. The group setting provides the best atmosphere for collaborative play and exploration while learning life-enhancing skills of waiting, listening, communicating and dialogue in a context that is affirming and positive.

Class Descriptions:

Kindermusik Imagine That!

is designed for active, energetic, enthusiastic, and imaginative 3 & 4-year-olds and encourages socializing, sharing, and participating in group activities. Singing becomes a focus for enhancing the preschooler's vocal development as her expressive language is just beginning to emerge. Parents are invited to participate in the last 15 minutes for Sharing Time of the 45-minute class, which meets weekly for 15 lessons.

Kindermusik for the Young Child provides an excellent transition into formal music instruction. Students completing the 4 semesters of the Young Child curriculum are fully prepared for private music lessons and a lifelong enjoyment of music. Through movement, games and songs, children learn rhythmic notation and can create and play simple compositions on a glockenspiel, dulcimer and recorder. Pre-keyboard reading, ensemble experience and vocal development are also among the many benefits of this highly acclaimed course. Parents participate in the last 10 minutes of the 60-minute class, which meets weekly for 15 lessons.
